It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned Jodi Shivanahalli and Hullekere villages have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government as shown in the sub joined statement by the said Jody Shivanahalli and Jodi Hullekere Villages will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will be commenced at 11 A.M. on the date specified and the village will be knocked down to highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognised vritties, the Deputy Commissioner may at his option instead of selling the village as a whole sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the balance of purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bid may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest on other charges provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

7. The sale of the property will not become obsolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner or other authority duly authorised to confirm the sale.

8. Purchaser having completed the payment of the purchase money, will as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Depyty Commissioner be placed in immediate possession, and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided that parties clearing themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale and also to appeal to higher authority against this order within the time prescribed by law and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
